INTRODUCTION

The original book of vital records kept by various town clerks is housed at the Town Clerk's Office in Hatfield. It is titled: The Registry of Births and Deaths for Northampton, Hadley and Hatfield. This volume with a leather cover was heavily used over the years and was badly worn. It has since been archivally stabilized and the cover and original pages placed in polyethylene sleeves and bound in a hard cover. The table of contents is as follows:

- Northampton Births (1655-1688), 8 pp
- Northampton Marriages (1655-1687), 3pp
- Northampton Deaths (1655-1676), 3pp
- Pages are partially numbered, but each number represents the front and back side of the paper.
- Hadley Births (1660-1687), pp 40-43
- Account of the Desolation of Deerfield in 1704 and French and Indian War Dead: 1704-1746, pp 44-45
- Hatfield Births (1720-1796); a number of these are out of sequence, pp. 52-69, 71-77
- Hadley Marriages (1661-1687), p 70
- Hatfield Marriages (1777-1814), pp 81-84
- Hatfield Marriages elsewhere (1815-1844), pp 85-89
- Hatfield Births (1671-1722), pp 96-104
- Hatfield Marriages (1670-1792), pp 105-109
- Hatfield Deaths (1671-1843), pp 110-121
- Oath of Allegiance, 1678: Lists of Names from Northampton, Hadley and Hatfield, p 122-123

With the exception of the Northampton vital records found on the initial 28 pages of the original book, the Hadley and Hatfield vital statistics in this original book were later transcribed by a single person into a bound, hard covered ledger book on quality paper. This transcribed volume was photographed on 9/24/2020 by Peter A. Thomas and subsequently photo-edited and compiled into this digital volume.
