The COA Board met with the Select Board to pass along information regarding the future of the Council on Aging. Kerry and the Board members passed along to the Select Board about meetings that have taken place to discuss the two options they have for a future site of the COA. Those two options being the current location, basement of the Town Hall or to move the vacant church on Main Street. They also discussed the feasibility study that needs to be done for COA. The Select Board were given the approximate space requirement for the COA. Kyle Scott, Building Inspector was also invited to attend the meeting but was unavailable.
